IDENTIFYING LOVE BUSTERS

Love Busters are your habits that cause your spouse to be unhappy. Whenever you engage in a Love Buster, you make Love Bank withdrawals.

Why do you engage in Love Busters? Why do you cause your spouse to be unhappy? One of the most important reasons for Love Busters is that, while they may make your spouse feel bad, they make you feel good. Most Love Busters gain pleasure for you at your spouse’s expense. When your spouse complains about Love Busters, you rationalize your behavior and explain away the fact that you’re simply being thoughtless and selfish.

Since your Love Busters usually make you feel good while your spouse feels bad, the one best able to identify them is your spouse. Similarly, you are in the best position to identify your spouse’s Love Busters.

I’ve designed the Love Busters Questionnaire to help you identify the Love Busters in your marriage. Two questionnaires are to be completed: one by you and one by your spouse.

Before you complete these questionnaires, you should be familiar with chapters 1–8 in Love Busters. You should also try to answer the questions at the end of each chapter.

The analysis of each Love Buster follows a sequence of questions. The first question asks how much unhappiness it causes you. If it doesn’t cause you any unhappiness, it’s not a Love Buster, and you don’t need to answer the remaining questions. But if it causes you unhappiness, your spouse needs to understand how often it happens (question 2), the form(s) that it takes (question 3), the worst form(s) (question 4), when it first started (question 5), and how it has developed over time (question 6).
At the end of the questionnaire, you’re asked to rate the Love Busters according to the unhappiness they create. While all Love Busters should be eliminated, it makes sense to work on the most painful Love Busters first.

The results of these questionnaires will help you understand the pain and unhappiness that’s created in your marriage. When you cause your spouse emotional pain, you not only withdraw love units, but you encourage your spouse to build emotional defenses that make him/her withdraw from you. Those emotional defenses prevent you from depositing love units to make up for the loss. In other words, when your spouse has withdrawn emotionally from you, he/she won’t let you meet his/her emotional needs. It’s only when you overcome Love Busters that the emotional barrier is removed and you’re in a position to meet your spouse’s emotional needs. That’s why your Love Busters should be eliminated before you learn to meet each other’s needs. That’s the goal of the third step to romantic love.
His Love Busters Questionnaire

This questionnaire is to be completed by the husband. It’s designed to help identify your wife’s Love Busters. Your wife engages in a Love Buster whenever one of her habits causes you to be unhappy. By causing your unhappiness, she withdraws love units from her account in your Love Bank, and that, in turn, threatens your romantic love for her.

There are six categories of Love Busters. Each category has its own set of questions in this questionnaire. Answer all the questions as candidly as possible. Do not try to minimize your unhappiness with your wife’s behavior. If your answers require more space, use and attach a separate sheet of paper.

When you have completed this questionnaire, go through it a second time to be certain your answers accurately reflect your feelings. Do not erase your original answers, but cross them out lightly so that your wife can see the corrections and discuss them with you.

The final page of this questionnaire asks you to rank the six Love Busters in order of their importance to you. When you have finished ranking the Love Busters, you may find that your answers to the questions regarding each Love Buster are inconsistent with your final ranking. This inconsistency is common. It often reflects a less than perfect understanding of your feelings. If you notice inconsistencies, discuss them with your wife to help clarify your feelings.

Ranking Her Love Busters

The six basic categories of Love Busters are listed below. There is also space for you to add other categories of Love Busters that you feel contribute to your marital unhappiness. In the space provided in front of each Love Buster, write a number from 1 to 6 that ranks its relative contribution to your unhappiness. Write a 1 before the Love Buster that causes you the greatest unhappiness, a 2 before the one causing the next greatest unhappiness, and so on, until you have ranked all six.
